CRISIS STRATEGIES

Learn the lessons as Dr. Scott Poland experienced them during his actual crisis interventions at national tragedies such as Columbine, 9-11-01, Oklahoma

City, Hurricane Katrina, Paducah, Jonesboro, and Red Lake. Dr. Scott Poland is an international expert on crisis prevention, planning, and management. A consultant to districts and organizations across the US, he has appeared on most television networks, including CNN and ABC, testified before Congress and met at the White House to help develop national school violence policy. As the Chair of the National Emergency Assistance Team, Dr. Poland leads crisis intervention teams during many of our nation's tragedies. He will help workshop participants better prepare and manage school crisis when it hits. Dr. Poland has helped PSI design a variety of award winning direct service programs for at-risk students. His lessons will provide you with examples, tips, materials and proven strategies to allow for outstanding leadership in crisis planning and intervention.

Dr. Scott Poland is an international expert on crisis prevention and the author of several books and numerous articles pertaining to crisis prevention, planning, and management.
